The book series on Chinese Perspectives on Human Rights and Good Governance is edited by the Institute for Human Rights at the China University of Political Science and Law. It offers a series of mainly edited volumes offering scholarly analysis and discussion of the theory and practice of international and national human rights law and good governance issues of particular relevance to China. It will be published on average once a year by Brill.

Submissions: Authors are kindly requested to submit their manuscript by electronic mail to submissions@cupl.edu.cn, no later than 30 June of each calendar year. Please note that all submissions must be submitted and received before the day of the given deadline. Late submissions will not be considered.

Format Requirement: Authors are invited to follow the guidelines for manuscript preparation. They can be found on Brill's website:

("author_resources_manuscript_preparation.pdf"):

Note: Especially the following points are important

- There should not be any 'track changes' in the manuscript.
- Footnotes should be numbered per chapter, not consecutively throughout the book. If numbered consecutively, the footnotes (and any cross-references to footnotes in the text) should be adjusted by the author.
- Section headings and subheadings should be clearly distinguishable.
- The resolution of illustrations should be sufficient for printing: 300 d.p.i. for greyscale illustrations and 600 d.p.i. for line illustrations (black lines only) at a minimum width of 11 cm. Illustrations in Word, PowerPoint, Excel (only tabular data can be used by the typesetters to create a new illustration) and PDF are not acceptable; the source files should be requested instead. TIFF, EPS and JPEG are the preferred formats.
- The author/editor should obtain all permissions of illustrations/maps/tables etc. used in the manuscript and should send a proof of that permission to Brill.
- All illustrations/maps/tables etc. will be printed in black and white only (unless agreed otherwise).
- Chapters should be numbered consecutively even if the book is divided into parts.
- The author/editor should make the index on the basis of the proof (unless agreed otherwise).

Copyright: Request for copyright permissions should be based on Brill Policies,
